

Inventory Management Ten Commandments

1. Thou shalt always keep score of thy inventory.
2. Thou shalt not make decisions to do it the way you've always done it before.
3. Thou shalt always buy what is selling in your store, not what being sold to you.
4. Remember to always make decisions considering the proper balance between ministry and business.
5. Honor the balance between inventory depth and inventory breadth

Inventory Management Ten Commandments

6. Thou shalt always be obsessed with keeping score
7. Thou shalt always remember that speed of sale is as important or more important than discount.
8. Thou shalt always see stacks of twenty dollar bills on your bookshelves.
9. Thou shalt always remember that making a profit is all about change!
10. Thou shalt always keep the first nine commandments

